PRESS RELEASE

Invitation to the public to submit representations

Earlier this month the Dr Giraldi Home Inquiry issued a public notice inviting individuals and organisations to submit representations and evidence relevant to its work. The public notice explained in detail the nature and scope of the matters on which the Inquiry wishes to hear from the public together with the procedure by which representations and evidence relating to such matters may be submitted.

The Inquiry wishes to remind potential respondents that there is still time to act as the period for the receipt of submissions is open until 27th March 2013. Copies of the public notice can be requested from:
